March 2013

CLOTHING and ATTIRE

NEW RULE: 24.

Supported by the DCL and DACO we consider it necessary to point out the following.

As the DCL wish to retain the current high standards during play in Devon Cricket League matches it is important that the new rule is brought to your attention.

Firstly it states that clothing must be predominately white and contain the minimum of logos etc.

However another issue arose during the past season, this was the wearing of 'Coloured' skins.

The DCL wish to point out that this is unacceptable as the contrast is noticeable and distracting. It is our opinion that this may be against the 'Sprit of Cricket'

The umpires this season will be asked to report any indiscretions firstly to the Team Captain and also copy this report to the DCL.

This memo is issued in good faith and hopefully all Clubs will take the issue on board and discuss it with their teams.
