25th June 2012.

Dear Paul,

Ref: Ipplepen 1st XI versus Bideford 1st XI Saturday 2nd June 2012.

We thank you for attending the disciplinary hearing held in the Boardroom at the Exeter Court Hotel on the 22nd June 2012. We confirm that the Sub-Committees findings as communicated to your representatives following the hearing on the night. Detailed as follows:

James Ford was found guilty of a breach of the 'Spirit of Cricket' by disputing an Umpires decision. For this he was suspended for one week from cricket under the jurisdiction of the Devon Cricket Board. The Players team was deducted 2 points.

The charge of Bad Language was dismissed

Marc Bettis. All charges were dismissed. It was noted that he did not attend.

The player and Club decided on the night that they would not appeal against the above decision.

Yours Faithfully

Geoff

Geoff Coish. (DCL Administrator).
